

General Rules

MODERN HIGH SEC SCHOOL has a set of Rules, Regulations and Guidelines, so that we can run smoothly and fulfill our objectives effectively. Without these rules it is not easy to handle a wide range of students, from different backgrounds, abilities and inclinations, to provide opportunities to them for their betterment with uniformity and fairness to all.

Parents are requested to read the diary and familiarize themselves with the rules. They must pay attention to the information, instructions conveyed from time to time through the diary, Net, notice board or circulars. We expect parents would conform to them, support them and ensure that their wards do the same. It will make things more effective and smoother for everyone concerned. I look forward to the fullest co-operation of parents, teachers and students in this mission.
